The Matilda Joslyn Gage Center for Social Justice Dialogue in Fayetteville, New York, she received the Katherine Cofy Award for outstanding service to museology from the Mid-Atlantic Association of Museums in 2012.

The new museology has emerged as a key discourse in contemporary museology. It is a broad field of study that engages critically with museums, calling into question the foundation assumptions of the field. This demonstrates critical museology’s close connection to New museology, which also challenges foundational assumptions in museology.
